Richmond Daily Register

S. M. SAUFLEY, Editor and Proprietor
Entered at the postoffice at Richmond, a second class mail matter, under act of Congress of 1875.

The Louisville Herald suggests a monument or memorial to Marse Henry Watterson. He needs none. But if the Herald, a business and political rival of the paper that he made so famous, leads such a movement, the Daily Register would desire to have a part in such a deserved tribute to the greatest of the latter day journalists.

Church Built on Rock Is Struck by Lightning

Maysville, Dec. 29—The Christian church at Maysville was struck by lightning and badly damaged. All plastering was knocked from walls and ceilings and the building was otherwise injured. Following the Biblical injunction, "Upon this rock I will build my church," the edifice had been erected on solid rock. Some contend that the rock attracted the bolt.

A Jessamine Sale

A large crowd attended the sale of J. H. Ethington on the Keene road in Jessamine county. Prices obtained for the stock and farming implements were satisfactory. Horses sold for $52 to $100; cows $20 to $90; sows and pigs $28 to $85; corn in the crib $3.10 per barrel; wagon $40 and $20; roller $20.

A Popular Suggestion

Frankfort, Dec. 29—Reduction of the state tax rate on real estate, revision of the inheritance tax law and the automobile law and uniform date for assessing property are some of the recommendations made in the fourth annual report of the State Tax Commission, which has been filed with Governor Edwin P. Morrow.

Voted For Himself And May Lose Office

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 29—Has a member of a county board of education the right to vote for himself for county school superintendent is the question involved in a suit which will shortly reach the Court of Appeals from Knott county. W. J. Martin, a member of the Knott county board of education, voted for himself for county school superintendent while serving on the board. The vote stood two for Martin and two for H. H. Taylor. Martin casting the deciding vote for himself.

Two 15-Year-Old Brides

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 29—Two 15-year-old girls became brides here the same day. Miss Elizabeth Holland was married to John Updike, 18, and Miss Martha Doyne, also 15, was married to Claude Brown, 19. A. A. Moore, 50, married Miss Hallie Morse, 24.

Hawaiian Music

Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 29—Hawaiian music, to be effective, should be composed in Hawaii and not in the Greenwich Village section of New York nor in the center of Chicago, it was decided at the first meeting of the Hawaiian Legends and Music commission, appointed recently by Governor Wallace R. Herrington to perpetuate the island fables and native songs and melodies.

Here to Settle Brother's Estate

C. E. Humley, of Edmond, Oklahoma, is here to settle up the estate of his brother, the late Will Humley, who died here several months ago. Mr. Humley lived in Richmond many years ago. He has been away for 35 years. He says that he set out many of the handsome apple trees which now adorn the campus at Eastern Normal.

Daughter and Son's

Wife Die Same Day

Booneville, Ky., Dec. 29—J. S. Bowles' holidays were saddened by receipt the same day of death messages. One stated that his daughter, Mrs. Robert Pierson, had died in Florida, and the other telegram announced the death of his son's wife, Mrs. Charles Bowles, at Covington.

Thrown Knife Kills

Little Tot Is Martin

Warfield, Ky., Dec. 29—A report has reached Warfield that the little son of John D. Moore was killed when he stepped into the path of an open knife which his brother, aged 12, was practicing throwing. The blade penetrated the abdomen.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Beware! Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumboago, and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade name of Bayer Manufacture of Monacetylenicidestol of Salicylic.

Insurance Due On

House Bullets Fired

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 29—John Fallis, whose house was set on fire by bullets, fired by a sheriff's posse June 15, recovered $2,500 insurance on the property in the Franklin Circuit Court. The insurance companies refused to pay the insurance on the ground that Fallis could not benefit by his own unlawful act. Fallis brought suit on the theory that the destruction of his house was not the natural and ordinary consequence of his conduct and the attempt to arrest him.

Former President Writes Thanks For Xmas Cake

Harrodsburg, Ky., Dec. 29—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Settle and Miss Louise Settle, of this city, received the following letter from ex-President Wilson:

"The cake came in good order and is a most acceptable gift, particularly as a token of your friendship. Mrs. Wilson joins me in sending you the warmest thanks, and most cordial good wishes for the Christmas and the New Year season."

Church Bands Will Be Burned At Sunday Service

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 21—Services Sunday at the Bardstown Road Presbyterian church will be marked by the burning of $10,000 worth of cancelled bonds, representing the entire indebtedness of the church. The church was organized November 19th, 1908, with fifty members. Its present building was dedicated May 4th, 1913. The services Sunday will commemorate the freeing of this building from debt.

Sixteen Quarts Spilled, Only One Bottle Breaks

Maysville, Dec. 29—An automobile driven by an unknown man, was overturned on an embankment at Washington, this county, and among the effects spilled were sixteen quarts of whisky. It is remarkable that only one bottle was broken. The motorist, after righting the car and reloading the whisky, proceeded to this city.

Get Thumped Thrice A Year, Doctor Advises

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 29—Members of the Lions Club were told at their luncheon that the average human being ought to live to reach the age of one hundred years or more by Dr. J. N. McCormack. Dr. McCormack, himself over eighty years old, urged that everyone undergo an examination by a physician at least three times a year.

Serbia Recuperates Rapidly

McNastir, Yugoslavia, Dec. 29—Few countries of Europe have shown greater recuperative power than Serbia. Although ravaged by years of war, famine and disease, and suffering the loss of nearly one third of her male population, the country is today rapidly approaching complete restoration and stability.
